

TERMINATION OF CONTRACT WITHOUT RELEASE OF EARNEST MONEY

(This form is designed for use by a buyer and seller who wish to terminate a real estate sales contract but have not agreed on how the earnest money deposit is to be disbursed. Form 390-T may be used in situations where the parties have agreed as to disbursement of the deposit).

Seller: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Buyer: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Seller and Buyer are referred to together as "the Parties".

1. Contract. The Parties entered into a contract for the purchase and sale of the following real property:

_____ (Contract").

The Effective Date of the Contract is _____ .

2. Intent. The Parties mutually desire to terminate the Contract, but they have not agreed how the earnest money deposit described in the Contract ("Deposit") is to be disbursed. The Parties therefore desire to release each other from any further obligations under the Contract, and to surrender all rights they have under the Contract except with respect to any obligations and rights relating to the Deposit.

3. Termination of Agreement. The Parties agree that, except as provided in paragraph 5 below, the Contract is hereby terminated, and they hereby surrender all rights they have under the Contract and release each other from any further obligations thereunder except as provided in paragraph 5 below.

4. Release from Liability. The Parties hereby release and forever discharge each other and their respective successors in interest from any and all claims, demands, rights and causes of action of whatsoever kind and nature arising from the Contract except as specifically provided in paragraph 5 below.

5. Deposit. The Parties retain any all rights they may have under the Contract with respect to the Deposit, and specifically do not release each other from further obligations under the Contract with respect to the Deposit. The Parties understand that in the event of a dispute between Seller and Buyer over the return or forfeiture of earnest money held in escrow by a broker, the broker is required by state law to retain said earnest money in the broker's trust or escrow account until a written release from the parties consenting to its disposition has been obtained or until disbursement is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

6. Effective Date. This Termination of Contract and Release shall be effective on the date that it has been signed by the Parties.
